

RULES

for visiting the Ural Forum "Cybersecurity in Finance"
February 17–19, 2027

1. General Provisions

1.1. These Rules determine the procedure for admitting visitors to the Ural Forum "Cybersecurity in Finance" (hereinafter – the "Event"). The Operator establishing the rules of conduct for visitors to the Event is the Limited Liability Company "EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATIONS" (INN 7716792536, OGRN 5147746475058, hereinafter – the "Operator").

1.2. Visiting the Event is possible only on the condition that the visitor has reviewed these Rules and agrees to them.

1.3. These Rules apply to all categories of participants of the Event (participants, speakers, partners, media representatives, technical personnel, volunteers, etc.).

2. Procedure for Admission to the Event

2.1. A mandatory condition for visiting the Event is the preliminary registration of the participant. The Operator has the right to refuse registration without explaining the reasons.

2.2. Entry to the Event is carried out only upon presentation of an accreditation badge.

2.3. Procedure for registering participants

2.3.1. Registration is carried out through the official website of the Event (<https://uralcyberfin.ru/>) by filling out an electronic form. During registration, the participant undertakes to provide accurate and complete personal data, confirm familiarization with and consent to the Personal Data Policy, and provide written consent to the processing of personal data for the use of a photograph as an identity identifier.

2.3.2. The start and end dates of registration are established by the Operator and published on the official website of the Event. On-site registration at the venue of the Event is not provided.

2.3.3. After processing the registration application, a notification confirming registration is sent to the email address specified by the participant (provided the participant has consented to receive system notifications).

2.3.4. If participation in the Event is paid, payment of the registration fee is made only after receiving notification from the Operator of preliminary approval of the application. The procedure and methods of payment are published in the participant's Personal Account on the official website of the Event (hereinafter – the Personal Account) and/or sent by email.

Final confirmation of registration is carried out after passing the Security Service check and receipt of payment.

2.3.5. The Operator reserves the right to make changes to the Event programme, the list of speakers, as well as to cancel or postpone the Event.

In the event of cancellation of the Event, the Operator undertakes to notify registered participants and return the paid funds in full.

2.4. Security Service Check of the Event

2.4.1. The Operator reserves the right to send the registration application of any participant for review by the Security Service of the Event.

2.4.2. If a negative conclusion is received from the Security Service of the Event, the participant is not admitted to the Event.

2.4.3. If a negative conclusion from the Security Service of the Event is received after payment for participation in the Event has been made, the payment is returned to the participant in full.

2.4.4. The reasons for the negative conclusion of the Security Service and denial of access to the Event are not disclosed.

2.5. Documents for Entry

2.5.1. The accreditation badge is a personalized document that the participant, regardless of category, must have with them throughout their entire stay at the Event venues.

2.5.2. Transferring the badge to third parties is prohibited. The Operator has the right to verify that the surname and first name indicated on the badge correspond to the surname and first name of the visitor. To conduct the check, the person controlling entry has the right to require presentation of an identity document.

2.5.3. In the event of loss of the badge, the participant must immediately contact the nearest registration desk for its replacement.

2.6. Procedure for Obtaining the Accreditation Badge

2.6.1. Obtaining the badge is carried out after confirmation of registration, payment for participation (if necessary), and receipt of a positive conclusion from the Security Service of the Event.

2.6.2. Information on the dates, locations, and operating hours of badge issuance points (registration desks) is sent in informational mailings and also posted in the Personal Account.

2.6.3. Upon receiving the badge, the participant is obliged to present an identity document and sign the Consent to the Processing of Personal Data.

2.6.4. To obtain the badge by a third party, it is necessary to provide the registration desk employee with a duly executed power of attorney, as well as written Consent to the Processing of Personal Data personally signed by the participant. The power of attorney form is available for download in the Personal Account.

2.7. Consequences of Failure to Provide Consent or Refusal of Approval

2.7.1. In the event that the participant fails to provide written Consent to the Processing of Personal Data (personally or through a representative), the Operator has the right to deny the participant access to the Event. Previously paid funds are subject to return in full.

2.8. Procedure for Entry to the Event

2.8.1. Entry to the venue of the Event is carried out only through specially equipped inspection points (turnstile groups, metal detector frames, etc.) installed at locations determined by the Operator and/or the administration of the Event venues.

2.8.2. To enter the Event, it is necessary to place the QR code of the badge against the pass reader. The participant is also obliged to present the badge upon request of a security officer.

2.8.3. The time of stay at the Event venues is established in accordance with the Event programme, which is published on the official website of the Event.

2.8.4. When passing through the inspection point, it is necessary to demonstrate the operability of electronic devices being brought into the Event venue (laptops, phones, etc.). It is important that the equipment be charged.

2.8.5. Bringing any food products and beverages into the Event venue is prohibited. Visitors are recommended to use public catering points.

2.8.6. All categories of participants of the Event are obliged to comply with the fire safety rules established at the Event venues.

2.8.7. It is prohibited to bring into the Event venue items included in the List of Prohibited Items (Appendix No. 1 to the Rules).

2.9. Grounds for Denial of Access or Removal from the Event

A visitor may be denied access to the Event or removed from it in the following cases:

2.9.1. In the absence of registration or if payment has not been received in the Operator's settlement account (if participation in the Event is paid).

2.9.2. Upon refusal to undergo personal inspection, including presenting hand luggage and personal belongings for inspection.

2.9.3. Upon attempting to bring in items prohibited for entry to the Event (Appendix to these Rules).

2.9.4. Upon attempting to enter the territory and premises closed to visitors, as well as upon using service, technical entrances, and driveways.

2.9.5. Upon violation of public order, aggressive behavior, or commission of actions creating, in the assessment of the Operator's representatives, a potential danger to visitors, participants, and the safety of property.

2.9.6. Upon non-compliance with these Rules, the requirements of the Operator's representatives and/or the administration of the Event venues, as well as upon obstructing the performance of their duties.

2.9.7. Upon detection of the fact that the participant provided inaccurate data during registration or upon attempting to pass under someone else's name.

2.9.8. In the absence of a positive conclusion from the Security Service of the Event.

2.9.9. In other cases expressly provided for by the current legislation of the Russian Federation, as well as in the event of emergency situations threatening the life and health of participants, or upon receipt of mandatory requirements from the venue administration — by decision of the Operator.

3. Liability

3.1. In the event that a visitor commits unlawful actions, they may be handed over to law enforcement representatives to decide the issue of bringing them to administrative or criminal liability.

3.2. Material damage caused to the Operator's property, buildings, structures, equipment of the Event venue, property of other individuals and legal entities is subject to compensation in the manner established by the current legislation of the Russian Federation.

Appendix No. 1

List of items prohibited for entry to the Ural Forum "Cybersecurity in Finance"

February 15–19, 2027

1. Explosive substances and their components, means of detonation, and items filled with them.
2. Weapons of any type, including firearms, pneumatic, gas, cold steel, throwing weapons, self-defense means (including aerosol and gas means of influence, including pepper spray and similar devices), ammunition of any type, weapon parts, as well as special means.
3. Piercing and cutting items, knives, as well as other items that may be used as weapons or to cause harm to health.
4. Devices and products, including those of homemade manufacture, that are not pyrotechnics, used for scattering or spraying various materials and substances (including pneumatic crackers).
5. Other items and products, including those of homemade manufacture, the use of which may lead to injury.
6. Any items visually imitating prohibited items, their copies and analogues.
7. Flammable and pyrotechnic substances or products, except matches and pocket lighters, including signal flares, flares, firecrackers, as well as chemical materials and other substances.

8. Items that may be used for the manufacture of pyrotechnic products or smoke.
9. Aerosol cans of any purpose.
10. Flammable solid substances, flammable and combustible liquids, combustible, compressed, and liquefied gases.
11. Oxidizing substances and organic peroxides.
12. Toxic, poisonous, asphyxiating, and foul-smelling substances, radioactive materials, and corrosive substances.
13. Coloring substances.
14. Narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and their precursors, including as part of medicinal products.
15. Medical syringes, injection needles, and other medical products for injection purposes — in the absence of confirmed medical indications or in the presence of medical indications without presentation of relevant supporting documents.
16. Any loose substances regardless of volume.
17. Glass, metal, and tin containers of any purpose, including containers, bottles, jars, thermoses, and flasks, as well as open containers of any kind.
18. Liquids with a volume of more than 500 ml, as well as liquids in non-factory packaging regardless of volume. Food products and beverages in any container and volume (including water, juices, snacks, sandwiches, fruits, confectionery, thermoses, prepared food), with the exception of medicines and a transparent plastic bottle of water up to 0.5 L in factory packaging.

19. Alcoholic and low-alcohol beverages of any kind.
20. Unmanned, radio-controlled, remotely controlled, and autonomous devices and models, including aerial (including drones, aircraft models, gliding aircraft, kites, and similar devices), ground, and water (including radio-controlled cars, boats, vessels, and similar devices), as well as means of their control, launch, navigation, and components thereto (including control panels, antennas, FPV equipment, batteries, and other components).
21. Television, telecommunications, and other special equipment for photo, video, audio recording, transmission, reception, amplification, and relay of signals, as well as for organizing radio communication and broadcasting (including radio stations, repeaters, transmitters, receivers, scanners, satellite terminals, antennas, and similar devices) — without appropriate accreditation or permission from the organizer.
22. Musical instruments, wind devices for producing sounds, and other sound-reproducing devices.
23. Masks, helmets, as well as any other means of disguise or items specifically intended to make identification difficult.
24. Body protection means (body armor, corsets, except those required for medical reasons).
25. Any animals, with the exception of guide dogs upon presentation of relevant documents, as well as service dogs of canine services in the performance of their official duties.
26. Materials of an extremist, offensive, or discriminatory nature are subject to restriction. In particular, this concerns materials containing Nazi attributes or symbols, attributes or symbols of extremist organizations, as well as materials aimed at discrimination of any kind against a country, person, or group of persons on the basis of race, skin color, ethnic, national, or social origin, sex, disability, language, or other status.